COMMITTEE MEETING

Paul Maheu , Vince, Jane, Ernest, , Don, Marcia and Mary, attended.

Scoutmaster's Report

The trip to Shasta was a great success. The weather was not great, but everyone had fun in the snow and there was a spectacular troop-wide game of Risk !

Luc M. is Troop 19's most recent Eagle Scout. Congratulations!

There has been a turnover of the senior patrol.

John is junior assistant scout master.
Matt and Gabe are co-senior patrol leaders.
Will and Graham are senior assistant patrol leaders.
Alex is the patrol leader of the Wolverines.

Chris has stepped into the role of troop Scribe. He will be recording the details of scout events and outings ..

The March 9 meeting will include an installation ceremony for new troop members.

Sunday, March 6, marks the start of our participation in serving meals to the hungry at St. Mary Magdalene Church. The first Sunday of each month, a different patrol will serve at the meal.

The weekly meetings are going very well. The boys are wearing their Class A uniforms as required.

Committee Reports

Treasurer - Mary Hartman reports the treasury is in good shape for the start of 2005.

Trail to Eagle- Debbie Hecht will be tracking the progress of scouts who are advancing toward their Eagle awards. Welcome back, Debbie!

Equipment - Don and Quartermaster Richard have completed an inventory of the troop equipment.

FOS- This year's Friends of Scouting presentation and pledge drive will be at the third regular scout meeting in March (3/16). Funds pledged go to support the Herms District and are an essential means for maintaining Camp Wolfeboro. Last year we had a very generous response from our member families so please consider how much you would like to pledge this year.

Upcoming events
